

The San Diego Union-Tribune.

‘Big Reveal’ at Terramor: resort-style Terrace Club

The Terrace Club has a resort-style pool with cabanas, an indoor saltwater pool, fitness center and wellness studio, tennis courts, bocce ball and pickleball courts. (Courtesy photo)

Foremost Companies unveils The Terrace Club today at Terramor, a new multigenerational master-planned community in Riverside County’s Temescal Valley. The Terrace Club, a five-star-inspired recreational club with amenities exclusively for residents age 55-plus, boasts a 6-acre outdoor recreational area with a 20,000-square-foot clubhouse.

Home shoppers are invited to celebrate the “Big Reveal” from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. with activities throughout the day, including tennis and pickleball lessons, barre classes, live pottery demonstrations, live music performances and art classes.

While there, stop by the Welcome House at The Veranda and then explore five new neighborhoods with 15 model homes. The Terrace Club at Terramor is at 11750 Temescal Hills Drive in Temescal Valley.

Resort-style amenities

The Terrace Club features a resort-style pool with surrounding cabanas offering relaxation and socialization, while an indoor saltwater pool, extensive fitness center, tennis courts and bocce ball and pickleball courts provide residents with an active lifestyle in the club’s social atmosphere.

The gym and wellness studio will offer a plethora of classes with locker rooms equipped with saunas for post-workout relaxation.

The Living Room, crafts room and other multipurpose rooms will provide spaces for gathering, entertainment and socializing throughout the year.

Connection with nature

Picture yourself in The Terrace Club's unique multigenerational community, which brings nature and active living to the forefront. Explore over five miles of trails and paseos that connect to a broader trail system for adults and families of all ages.

Surrounded by nature, you can stroll trails that showcase gorgeous terrain, rolling hills and picturesque views, while providing shaded rest areas, water access and restrooms.

Numerous other parks and outdoor amenities will provide year-round recreation for residents of all ages. These include large and small dog parks, community garden, ball fields, basketball courts, tot lots and The Veranda, Terramor's first resort-style recreational club.

A neighborhood to suit you

Thinking of purchasing a home at Terramor? You'll have many opportunities, floor plans and architectural styles to choose from. Upon completion, Terramor will include 1,443 single-family homes across 16 neighborhoods built in three phases.

Phase one includes six neighborhoods, four of which are specifically dedicated to buyers age 55-plus. Builders include CalAtlantic Homes - A Lennar Company, KB Home, and Del Webb, which are actively selling; and Van Daele Homes, whose neighborhood is under development.

Visit ... and stay

Terramor, just south of Corona, offers freeway access to all of Riverside County and is central to surrounding Los Angeles, San Diego, Orange and San Bernardino counties.

For details, visit terramor.com.